DEPARTMENT/CAMPS RECRUITMENT & RETENTION EFFORTS

Both the Department and Camps, hand in hand, have been working diligently on recruitment. The key is doing events and publicizing these events. We cannot slack off, each year our Department and Camps need to continue utilizing the PR Strategies posted on our website.

The Department of New York wants to acknowledge the following Brothers for recruiting 23 new members to date. The following Brothers helped make the 19 new members a reality:

Brother Kris Haskins CC

Brother Mark Crandall

Brother Robert Pugsley PDC

Brother Phurriott Henry

Brother Bill Stump PDC

Brother Parker Maybe

Brother Jeffrey Albanese PDC

Brother Millard Murphy

Brother Richard Lewis

Brother George Weinmann PDC
Brother John Swartwout
Brother Chad Loshbugh
Brother Jerry Orton PDC

Future Brother Levi Wilson has recruited 9 new members in forming the Sgt Judson E. Hosford Camp #106. He is still working on more prospective new members. Great Job Brother Levi Wilson!

Brother Pugsley is working on four more for Hicks Camp.

The majority of these new members are due to doing events and talking to people about our organization. An active camp and publicizing your events are tried and true methods of recruitment. Let's keep the good work going.

The NY Department is currently drafting a Retention Guidebook so we can help keep the brothers we have. This will be sent out to all the Camps for review and input.

We must stay active on both these fronts to survive as an organization. Thank you all for working hard and diligently on recruitment. Good Job to you all!

Yours in Fraternity, Charity, & Loyalty
