Department Order No. 6, Series 2015-2016

By the authority vested in me as Commander of the Department of New York, I hereby issue this order.

1. In 1863, President Lincoln said, “Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.” This Fourth of July 2015, will mark the 239th Birthday of this great nation.
 - a. As we celebrate this Independence Day, let it be a day to commemorate our beloved country and our freedom, the causes for which those patriots shed their blood, and that which others have fought to protect all these 239 years. In the words of John Adams, let Independence Day “be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more.” Camps and Brothers are hereby requested to take part in Independence Day celebrations remembering the patriotic reasons behind them.

This Order is so ordered on this 1st day of July, 2015 in Fraternity Charity, & Loyalty,
